The death of a 17-year-old youth, struck with a flying circular saw blade, was reported today by RCMP.

Lyle Getzinger, son of John Getzinger, who resides on a farm 17 miles south of Stony Plain, was helping to saw fire wood with a power saw on Saturday, when the blade broke loose, flew into the air and struck the youth on the head. He died instantly.

RCMP investigated the case. The district coroner, Dr. J. Oatway, said that the death was accidental and no inquest will be held.

Annual Report

Big Development Planned By TCA

OTTAWA, April 28 (CP)—Gearing itself for increased peacetime services, Trans-Canada air lines in 1946 increased its route and services, enlarged and improved its fleet and suffered a deficit of $1,115,256, it was shown today in the annual report tabled in the Commons by Reconstruction Minister Howe.

THE REPORT, presented by H. J. Symington, TCA president, said the airlines are "now more than ever in the process of intensive development common to all growing transport enterprises."

Daily scheduled miles increased 39 per cent during the year to 45,021, while route miles increased from 5,299 to 6,511, not including the new trans-Atlantic route. Total miles flown during 1946 were 15,864,670, compared with 11,546,227.

The service carried an unprecedented number of passengers during the year, but mail, which produces about 30 per cent of the com-

Toughest Problem Before Assembly

By Robert Manning

UNITED NATIONS HALL, FLUSHING, N.Y., April 28 —(BUP)— The United Nations met in its first emergency session today and raced through the formalities of organizing so it could tackle the Palestine problem, the toughest question it has faced.

In quick order, delegates from 55 nations elected Oswaldo Aranha of Brazil, as president of the assembly for the special session, named vice-presidents from each of the big five powers and Equador and India, and officially welcomed Siam as the 55th member.

The first sharp fight of the session was expected late this afternoon or tonight when the Arab nations were scheduled to try to push through the steering committee their proposal for a full-dress debate on immediate independence for Palestine.

IT WAS LEARNED, meanwhile, that the full 20 votes of the Latin-Americans would be marshalled against the Arabs.

The steering committee also will have to decide whether to recommend to the assembly that either the Jewish Agency or the Hebrew Committee of National Liberation, or both, be allowed a voice in the Palestine debate. The agency announced today it would boycott the session until the assembly acts on its request for a seat to represent world Jewry here. The Hebrew committee, on the other hand, said it would keep observers present, whatever the assembly's decision.

THE PRESIDENT and vice-presidents elected today automatically became the first eight members of the steering committee. The other six, chairmen of the assembly's six committees, were to be elected when the assembly reconvened at 3 p.m. They were agreed upon in advance as Canada, Czechoslovakia, Egypt, Poland, Sweden and Mexico.

A tension unknown to previous meetings of the United Nations prevailed at this extraordinary session. Unusual security precautions were taken to prevent any outbursts or demonstrations. The passes of all persons entering the building were checked carefully by a guard augmented by more than 200 New York City policemen. All packages were examined, even photographers' camera cases.

DELEGATES took their seats mindful of the Irgun Zvai Leumi organization's declaration in Jerusalem yesterday that its relentless war against the British would continue unabated during this meeting.

Prince Amir Faisal Al Saud, foreign minister of Saudi Arabia and one of the dominating figures of the Arab bloc which will battle for an independent Palestine at this meeting, arrived accompanied by a special bodyguard. The prince and his aides, dressed in white, gold-trimmed burnooses, hurried into the assembly hall and took their seats.

Rule Out Truce In Holy Land

BY EDWARD CURTIS

JERUSALEM, April 28—(AP)—Any possibility of truce in the trouble-ridden Holy Land while the United Nations assembly is debating its future in New York apparently was ruled out today by Irgun Zvai Leumi, militant Jewish underground organization.

IN A SECRET radio broadcast yesterday, Irgun repeated demands for an end to Britain's mandated government and military occupation of Palestine and declared there would be "no peace in the country, the Middle East or the entire world until the Palestine question is settled."

In another development related to the U. N. meeting, a highly placed informant said the executive of the Jewish Agency, official spokesman for Palestine's 600,000 Jews, had decided to issue literature to impress upon Jewry that "murder and bloodshed" would hurt the Jews' case before the general assembly.

Meanwhile, Gen. Sir Alan Gordon Cunningham, British high commissioner for Palestine, last night wrote Mayor Israel Rokach of the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv that "when the next post office vehicle is stolen, the Jewish community must necessarily suffer the loss of its postal services."

A STOLEN POSTAL truck was used Friday to haul explosives that killed five British officials and wounded six others in a police compound at Sarona, Tel Aviv suburb. In a communique sent to a newspaper, the underground Stern Gangs said its members had driven the death truck.

Hit By Truck

Pedestrian Is Injured

A light delivery truck which jumped the curb on Jasper avenue, between 98 and 99 streets, struck and injured 70-year-old George Stewart, 202 Condell block, about 9:45 a.m. Monday.

Driver of the vehicle, Edgar Baker, 11237 90 street, said he went to pull into the curb and when he applied his brakes they would not work. Investigation revealed that the brake-fluid line was broken.

The vehicle narrowly missed a store front and street pole. Stewart was removed to the Royal Alexandra hospital in Jack Hays' ambulance. He suffered cuts to the head and a possible fractured elbow.

Offer $1,500,000

City Firm Bids For Canol No. 1

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—The United States government today received a high bid of $1,500,000 for its $70,000,000 wartime crude oil product, Canol No. 1, in Canada.

The bid, one of several opened in the office of the foreign liquidation commissioner, was submitted by the Northwest Salvage Company of Edmonton.

The second high bid, $288,888.88, was submitted by Bernstein Bros., Pueblo, Colo., and the third, $285,074.55, by Louis Greenspon, Inc., of Overland, Mo.

The office indicated that designation of a successful bidder, if any, would be forthcoming in "a few days." It reserved the right to reject "any and all bids."

The project, representing an actual government investment of $69,534,286, includes among other facilities a refinery at Whitehorse in Yukon Territory; a power plant and the 577-mile pipeline from Norman Wells to Whitehorse.

Canol projects 2, 3 and 4, the system for distributing Canol's output, have not been declared surplus by the army.

WASHINGTON, April 28—(AP) John L. Lewis, and United States soft coal operators will open talks on a New York contract tomorrow — with another mine strike possibly hanging on the outcome. The conference was arranged by the government to get the United Mine Workers (AFL) chieftain and the mine owners together on an agreement before the June 30 deadline for the return of the government - controlled pits to private operation.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., April 28—(CP)—Ice in the upper St. Mary's river today held fast a fleet of more than 40 downbound lake freighters. Pending release of the vessels, upbound traffic of ships bound from the lower lakes to Lake Superior was halted below the locks of the Great Canals here.

Flin Flon Wants Quit Manitoba

WINNIPEG, April 28—(CP) — Flin Flon's indignant citizens appeared today to have consigned the opinion of the constitutional experts to the place where—after wrapping them tenderly in a figurative snowball—the same authorities tossed the northern Manitoba town's chances of seceding from the province.

The experts say the town, angry because a road linking it with the south wasn't included in this year's provincial highway program, can't secede and join up with the Northwest Territories. At least, it can't without first unrolling enough red tape to cool off the most irate citizen.

Along with being angry, however, Flin Flon residents regard themselves as pioneers imbued with the traditional pioneer scorn for such things as constitutional handicaps. When the board of trade meets Wednesday a petition bearing about 2,000 names—nearly a quarter of the town's population—will be before it urging the Manitoba government relinquish all claims to the area.

Hope for Easing U.S.-Soviet Tension

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—American hopes for an easing in United States-Soviet tensions were buoyed today by reports that State Secretary Marshall believes his country's firmness on European peace treaty issues may lead Russia to give ground.

Marshall's view was laid before congressional leaders at a White House conference yesterday in advance of his radio report at 6:30 p.m. MDT tonight on the results of the Moscow foreign ministers conference.

At the White House conference Marshall was said to have counselled patience with the Soviets in the hope that, as they digest the American position in the next few months, they may go to London for the next conference in November more amenable to suggestions from their wartime allies on vital points involved in proposed Austrian and German peace treaties.

The secretary was said to have related that proposed American action to strengthen Greece and Turkey against communism appeared to have made a profound impression on the Russian people and their leaders, despite the fact that this program was kept out of the official discussions of the Moscow conference.

Recapture Nazi

FRANKFURT, April 28 (Reuters)—Erich Isselhorst, former commander of the Nazi security police in southwest Germany who was sentenced to death for war crimes last year, was recaptured near Essen during the week-end after 16 days' freedom since he escaped from custody April 12. He was handed over to French authorities who also have war crimes charges against him.

Now in Hospital Here

Wild Moss, Water Kept Fliers Alive

Wild moss, melted snow water and sheer grit, plus three days of emergency rations, kept Jerry Blakesley, Bismark, N.D. businessman, and Spencer Addeman, Calgary, bush pilot, alive for 21 days after a forced landing in a light Taylorcraft plane about 350 miles north of Edmonton on April 5 last.

Saturday the two men, haggard and in a greatly weakened condition, but thankful for their deliverance from death by starvation and exposure, were taken to the Royal Alexandra Hospital in Edmonton.

They were flown from Little Red River trading post to Fort Vermilion in a ski-equipped Cessna plane and transferred there to an Anson Associated Airways plane for the remaining distance to Edmonton where they arrived at 5 p.m.

Placed under the care of Dr. William Shandro the rescued men were ordered to remain in bed without visitors for two days.

Both Lost Much Weight

Addeman lost 30 pounds and Blakesley 34 pounds in weight during their long ordeal, which ended with their arrival at Little Red River after a difficult trek through rugged lonely country. Indians probably saved the lives of the two men by guiding them to the trading post toward the end of their long ordeal in the bush.

Blakesley and Addeman set out from Edmonton airport on April 5 in their Taylorcraft plane for Embarras, a few miles north of Fort McMurray. Encountering a blinding snowstorm the machine was blown west of its course and a landing had to be made when the gasoline became exhausted. A good landing was made on the ice of Birch River and the plane was undamaged.

Flew Men to Edmonton

Tommy Fox, president and general manager of Associated Airways, brought the two men to Edmonton in an Anson rescue plane. Addeman was employed by Associated Airways. Blakesley was reported to be interested in prospecting. He is in the refrigerator business in Bismark.

ALTHOUGH interviews in hospital were forbidden it was revealed that the pair had remained with their grounded plane for the first 10 days after the forced landing. They constructed an SOS signal from spruce boughs, 30 feet in height and kept smoke signals rising at first. Several times they heard the sound of plane motors and twice saw the regular C.P. Air Lines plane fly overhead but despite frantic efforts, were not seen from the air.

An RCAF-civilian aircraft search was carried out for several days.

On the eleventh day the two decided to leave the plane and strike out for a settlement. Blakesley, who had snowshoes, went ahead after the second day.

BLAKESLEY FINALLY reached an Indian settlement where he received food and direction to the Hudson's Bay post at Little Red River. A "Ham" radio operator flashed the first message of his safety to the "outside."

Addeman continued his journey alone, estimating he walked over 100 miles, finally stumbling on the tracks of an Indian dog team, chasing the team for 35 miles before overtaking the natives. Addeman paid the Indian to take him to

Count de Marigny To Be Deported

OTTAWA, April 28.—(CP)—Resources Minister Glen, whose department is in charge of immigration, said today that Count Alfred de Marigny is being deported to Mauritius, an island in the Indian ocean, as soon as passage can be arranged.

DE MARIGNY

Asked on what grounds de Marigny was being deported, the minister said simply: "He is not acceptable to this country."

Mr. Glen said he was not sure where he will remain until his deportation.

De Marigny, who gained international notoriety in 1943 when accused and acquitted in the Bahamas of murdering Sir Harry Oakes, his millionaire father-in-law, has been living in Montreal for the last two years.

Mauritius is about 500 miles east of Madagascar. De Marigny has claimed the title of count from his Franco-Mauritius parents.

London Dockmen Go On Strike

LONDON, April 28 — (AP) — Thousands of London dock workers went on strike today, halting the unloading of ships bringing in critically-needed cargoes of food and fuel.

The full extent of the walkout was not immediately apparent, but London newspapers said it was spreading rapidly and dock work throughout the city would be paralyzed.

The strikers walked out in sympathy with 3,800 Glasgow dockers, who quit six weeks ago because 50 workers there were declared "redundant" (surplus) and dropped from the pay rolls.

The stevedores and dockers union, claiming 7,000 members, and the London Lightermen's Union, claiming 4,000, took strike decisions yesterday.

The larger dock section of the transport and general workers union, claiming 14,000, advised its members not to go out. Newspapers said "the great majority" were disregarding the union's counsel.

Auction Fan Buys $7,800 Hoard for $1.90

SEATTLE, April 28—(AP)—Mrs. Lillian Irene Nelson, a Seattle rooming house operator, has found a $7,800 pot of gold after pursuing an "auction" rainbow for 20 years—but she faces a court battle to keep the money.

Mrs. Nelson said Saturday she discovered the currency in two cans that were part of a case of odds and ends she purchased for $1.90 at the liquidation of the estate of George Lee Baber.

She said the money was stuffed in so tightly it had to be pried out with a fork.

Baber, who lived alone in a trailer, signed a will on his deathbed, leaving all his belongings and holdings to crippled brother Grover C. Baber, Richmond, Va.

Litigation was started by counsel for the execution of the estate seeking to force Mrs. Nelson to return her "find."

Drilling Proceeds At Leduc Wells

Imperial Oil Co. Ltd. drilling and exploration program in the Leduc district Monday was reported still proceeding under the handicap of soggy ground and bad roads.

No. 1 well, which came into production several weeks ago, was still shut down because impassible roads have brought a saturation of existing storage space for crude at the well site.

No. 2 well was down to 5,129 feet with no new development since a negative drill stam test some days ago.

The No. 3 well was at 4,837 feet and No. 4 at 4,413 feet.

Equipment was being hauled in for a start on spudding in No. 5, which is about three quarters of a mile from No. 1.

Placards Urge Boycott

City Teen Agers Kick At Eight-Cent Bars

Edmonton's teen-aged Saturday joined in the proposed Dominion-wide strike to protest against the increased price of candy bars, and paraded the downtown streets carrying placards urging a buying boycott. It was the first sign that the children of Edmonton were up-in-arms against the price advance, but there was little indication in the Saturday night's demonstration as to how widespread was their support of the national movement.

IN BRITISH COLUMBIA the strike appears to be general with picket lines forming in front of most candy stores in practically every city. The picketers carry placards with the slogan "Don't be a sucker, and buy eight cent bars."

A survey of city confectioneries and other points of retail distribution of chocolate bars Monday revealed that the eight-cent bar is not moving swiftly off the counters.

A near capacity crowd filled the HMCS Nonsuch drill hall on Sunday evening, as Edmonton's reserve division of the Royal Canadian Navy presented their first concert, Rhapsody in Rhythm.

The first performance of the 'baby band' was well received by those in attendance, who gave an encouraging hand, and the go ahead signal for more such concerts in the future.

Owned "Evil" Diamond

Fabulous U.S. Widow Dies of Pneumonia

WASHINGTON, April 28 —(AP)— Mrs. Evalyn Walsh McLean, fabulous social figure who wore the evil-omened Hope Diamond for a luck charm, died Saturday night at the age of 60.

MRS. EVALYN McLEAN

SHE SPENT HER first years in a two-room log cabin and spent a good part of her later years in a mansion designed to entertain royalty. She died of pneumonia at her Georgetown residence, where she had been ill for several days.

Hers was a life of contrasts:

She collected gems by the handful and pawned them often.

She had the great 44½ karat Hope Diamond blessed by a priest and claimed it brought her good fortune, but never would let her children touch it.

SHE ENTERTAINED the world's notables at lavish parties at the family's "Friendship" estate, and bought sandwiches for bonus marchers after the First World War.

She spent $104,000 and travelled half way across the country in an effort to ransom the kidnapped Lindbergh baby, only to learn she had been the victim of a hoax.

She recovered twice from narcotics addiction.

SHE WAS THE WIDOW of Edward Beale McLean, heir to the Washington Post and the Cincinnati Enquirer, and the daughter of Thomas Walsh who founded a huge fortune on the free milling gold of the Camp Bird mine in Colorado.

Surviving are two sons, John who lives in Texas, and Edward, Jr., who makes headquarters in Colorado Springs, Colo., to manage his mother's mining interests.

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)— What is to become of the fabulous Hope diamond with its reputed curse was a question that engrossed Washington society today with the death of its fabulous owner, Mrs. Evalyn Walsh McLean.

A reading of her will, probably soou after the private funeral service Tuesday, will give the answer. And if Mrs. McLean meant what she told friends before her death of pneumonia Saturday night, the superb but jinxed gem of 44¼ karats will go to none of her family.

IT HAD ALMOST Mrs. McLean's trade-mark. She had her portrait painted wearing it. Her home was closely guarded that she might keep it with her. She wore it with evening gowns and with daytime frocks.

She realized that it fascinated friends and strangers. She delighted to show it to her guests.

But the story is that she never would permit it to be touched by her children—John R. McLean, 2nd, now 31; Edward Beale McLean, Jr., now 29, and Mrs. Evalyn Washington McLean Reynolds, who died at the age of 25 last September from an overdose of sleeping medicine.

THE INDICATIONS are that it will go to her estate—both in view of her own attitude toward it and the more prosaic matter of taxes—to be sold to some new owner willing to have the superstition of its ill luck.

Acting Mayor J. R. Munro congratulated the institute on its anniversary and said it could be proud of its accomplishments.

The Hawaiian guitar orchestra, conducted by Miss Phillips, opened the second portion of the program.

GUEST ARTIST Miss Davis sang Smiling Through and Cherry Ripe.

R. S. Sheppard, superintendent of Edmonton public schools commended the institute on its many fine achievements.

Lost Fliers

Little Red River, where he arrived a few hours after Blakesley.

This cleared up the mystery surrounding the separate arrivals of the two men at the Little Red River post.

THE MEN said they boiled wild moss for food after their rations were gone.

The feet of both men were extremely sore and Addeman was given blood plasma on arrival here. Rest and good nourishment were certain to put them back in good shape again, however, doctors in Edmonton stated.

Although Addeman had a rifle the men saw no game at any time.

Mr. Blakesley is high in his praise of Spencer Addeman, saying he "still thinks Spencer one of the best and most capable bush pilots in the business."

PILOT ADDEMAN'S father and his brother, Frank, of Calgary, were both at the airport eagerly awaiting arrival of the rescue plane Saturday afternoon.

Two men who took an active interest in the search for the missing fliers were Owen Hargreaves and John Dick.

The two ex-RCAF airmen, operate a para-rescue and northern outfitters store in a hangar at Edmonton airport.

Hargreaves was highly pleased that the emergency rations he furnished the men had kept them alive 10 days. Dick was in the north assisting in the search from the start. Fortunately both men were warmly dressed when forced down and this prevented frostbite.

Hit By Auto

Slight injuries to the face and one finger was suffered by William Lange, 9640 90 street, when struck by an auto Sunday afternoon at 101 street and 111 avenue. Police said the driver of the car was William H. Ostrander, 11227 102 street. Lange received treatment at the Royal Alexandra hospital and was released.

Chocolate Bars

ada News and Confectionery said Monday that any extra profit from the two-cent boost on certain bars is not being made by the retailer. "It is the manufacturer that is making the extra profit," he said.

"THEY'RE SELLING a lot slower at eight cents than they were when the price was six cents each," he said, adding most of the purchases were being made by adults.

The eight-cent bar was described as "discrimination against the children, who enjoy a bar even more than adults," John G. Norrington, Jasper avenue confectioner and tobacconist, said when questioned on the matter.

"Children come into my place with six cents to buy a chocolate bar and end up by buying a five cent bag of peanuts," he added.

Sales of bars had slowed considerably, with most of the purchases being made by grown-ups.

Several other retail outlets commented similarly on the movement of chocolate bar sales, most of which indicated adults as the chief purchasers. Few however, knew of the protest parade Saturday conducted by groups of Edmonton's youngsters.

The matter is continuing to be one of importance with youth organizations and is on the business agenda of several forthcoming meetings of 'teen-agers, one of which is scheduled for Wednesday by the South Side Edmon-teens at their headquarters.

Throughout the country there is a mounting protest against the higher-priced bars.

Despite Newburyport Plan

Still Higher Prices Seen in United States

NEW YORK, April 28 —(AP)— The Newburyport plan of 10-per cent across-the-board retail price cuts is receiving widely-scattered support, an Associated Press survey showed yesterday.

MEANWHILE, President Truman's pleas for price-cutting received some industrial support, but the General Electric Company, largest United States manufacturer of electric appliances and equipment, announced it would increase prices an average of seven per cent, following a wage increase.

In Newburyport, Mass., where the anti-inflation experiment originated, retail merchants reported Saturday sales were 40 per cent above normal and attributed it to shoppers flocking in from surrounding communities.

THE 10-PER CENT cuts originally were scheduled to run for 10 days in that city, but sponsors of the idea are considering indefinite continuance. Action on continuing the plan will be taken at a meeting today.

Charles E. Wilson, president of General Electric, said he had not "much faith in the Newburyport plan.

"Inflation is here," Wilson declared, "and prices will go higher regardless of the Newburyport experiment. We have industrial strife and economic upsets beyond anything we ever had before. A wave of wage increases is sweeping the country. With increased costs, prices are bound to go up."

NEW YORK, April 28—The United States National Association of Manufacturers said yesterday one out of every five members replying to a questionnaire reported price cuts had been made since the first of the year on at least one product while the remaining four answering had made none.

THE N.A.M. SAID the puestionnaire was sent April 10 to its 16,563 members, and that the survey is based on replies from the first 3,742. It showed:

1,194 members reporting price cuts, or 20.8 per cent of those replying.

4,450 reporting no price cuts, or 77.2 per cent of those replying.

pany's revenue, fell off 32 per cent, and air express poundage increased by 10 per cent.

TOTAL PASSENGERS carried were 305,442, an increase of 122,321 or 67 per cent, with air mail 1,103,255 pounds and air express 1,043,713 pounds.

The year's developments, which included preparations for TCA's assumption of the Atlantic operation on a full commercial status, called for "unusually heavy expenditures," the report said, and 1946 proved to be a difficult year from a financial standpoint."

"Costs were high. Training requirements were extensive. Throughout the year, additional offices were opened, and field facilities were expanded in the expectation of spring deliveries of 24 Douglas DC-3 aircraft of 21 passenger capacity each.

"INDUSTRIAL conditions were such that these deliveries were delayed so that these aircraft were not available for the peak traffic of summer and early fall."

Totalling $13,943,939, operating expenses showed an increase of $3,693,667 or 36 per cent over 1945. There was an increase of $2,346,000 or 23 per cent because of expansion and intensification of services and higher material costs. Payrolls increased by $400,000 due to higher wage rates.

ACID INDIGESTION at the Lunch Counter...

You never know when you may get an attack of acid indigestion. It comes at the most awkward times—at the lunch counter for instance; but you can have quick, comforting relief if you carry a few RENNIES in your vest pocket or handbag.

Digestif RENNIES are pleasant-tasting tablets. You dissolve them in your mouth like candies. Their soothing antacid ingredients mingle with the saliva of your mouth and drip gently into your stomach, thus starting at once to help neutralise excess acid and helping to relieve the miserable feelings of acid indigestion, upset stomach and heartburn.

Each RENNIES tablet is individually wrapped in hygienic waxed paper. Carry a few in pocket or handbag. Easy to take—anytime, anywhere. At all Drug Stores—25c and 75c. If RENNIES don't relieve your indigestion, it's high time you saw your doctor.

Easy to take . . . anytime, anywhere

Freshness and appeal in perfect combination. These are the qualities you'll detect in Winchester Cigarettes, for they are "Blended Right" from the world's choicest tobaccos, Turkish, Virginia and Burley—Winchesters are consistently tops in taste, aroma and smoking satisfaction.

Ottawa To Alter Employment Plan

OTTAWA, April 28 (CP)—The federal government's policy of paying the cost of transporting unemployed men to places where jobs are available will be discontinued shortly.

While there are areas where unemployment is concentrated—notably in Nova Scotia—the government is known to feel that the long-term solution for these spots is not to yank out a few hundred men.

In the labor-scarce areas, the government feels, employers looking for help can afford to transport workers to their plants if they cannot find any in their own vicinity.

The shift in policy, it is indicated, will not apply in cases where commitments already have been made.

Three Candidates In British Vote

JARROW, Durhamshire, England, April 28 (CP)—Three candidates were nominated Saturday for the parliamentary by-election here to fill a vacancy left by the death of Education Minister Ellen Wilkinson. They are Labor Party candidate Ernest Fernyhough, 38-year-old trade union official from Staffordshire; William Scott, Conservative, 49, managing director of the Jarrow Metal Industries; and Wilfred Moody, Independent, 29, clerk from Bridlington, Yorkshire. The polling will be May 7.

Admits Slaying

MILWAUKEE, April 28—(AP)—Police said last night that a 14-year-old farm hand had admitted slaying his employer, Alfred Wittenberger, because of criticism of his work.

"He yelled at me because I couldn't milk one of the cows right," an officer quoted the youth's statement as saying.

Trans-Atlantic Record Re-Broken

SHANNON, Eire, April 28—(AP)—The Trans-Atlantic commercial flying record, 24 hours in British hands, returned to United States possession Sunday and went down five more minutes—to five hours and 23 minutes. The Pan-American Constellation clipper Invincible, which had left Gander, Newfoundland, at 1:25 a.m. GMT, sat down smoothly at Shannon airport at 6:48 a.m. GMT.

Jansen wins "best of breed" at 10 months!

"... raised on Gro-Pup"

"Our prize-winning Great Dane—Jansen—won 'Best of Breed' and three 'Firsts' at ten months' old. He has been raised on Gro-Pup since puppyhood. This wonderful physical condition—his sound teeth and fine coat are proof to us that Gro-Pup is the ideal dog food. We are more than delighted to recommend it."

Why breeders feed Gro-Pup

BREEDERS KNOW it is not safe to try to raise dogs on "table scraps" alone. Dogs must have a properly balanced diet that gives them everything they need for strong bones, sound teeth, and a beautiful coat. That's why breeders feed Gro-Pup.

IT'S A PROPERLY BALANCED DIET to keep dogs of all ages, sizes and breeds at their natural best. It is easily digestible. It contains every vitamin and mineral dogs are known to need for sturdy growth and vigour.

MONEY SAVING! Gro-Pup costs about ½ the price of many other brands of dog food.

ECONOMICAL! A 2-lb. package of Gro-Pup Cubes or Meal feeds an average 15-lb. dog a week.

GET IT at grocer's or pet shops in cube or meal form.

THE FIRST STEAM RAILWAY

There were railways in the mining areas of England as early as the 17th century, some 200 years before the invention of the steam locomotive. Over them ran heavy wagons transporting coal. Some mine owner had thought of a way to overcome the breaking down of dirt roads by these heavy wagons. He had logs placed at three-or-four-foot intervals, to which big planks were nailed. The wagon wheels ran over the planks. The horses walked between the rails. Soon other miners were building such plank roads—the forerunner of the modern railroad.

The steam engine, developed by James Watt (1736-1819) pointed the way to a new era of travel. Watt's engines were used first to pump water out of some English coal mines. These were, of course, stationary engines.

The first steam railway ran at the bottom of a coal mine. It was built by George Stephenson.

George was born in 1781. He was one of six children in a poor family. When he was still a child, he was given the job of tending one of Watt's engines which pumped water out of a mine. George was fascinated by the engine and wanted to learn all about it. But he had no one to teach him, and no books; and even if he had had books, he could not read. Not until he was a grown man did he learn how to read and write; but he came to know a great deal about the use of steam for power by working with colliery engines.

Meanwhile, two other men, William Murdock and Richard Trevithick had been working on engines. Murdock in 1784 made a little toy steam engine which ran on three wheels. Trevithick in 1801 made a steam engine that would travel along the road.

Stephenson went on working with engines. In 1808 he went to a mine where he showed such skill that he was placed in charge of all machinery. Now he determined to build an engine to draw the loaded cars from where the coal was dug to the elevator shaft. This he did. Then he made an engine that drew a 30-ton load of coal from the mine to the river port nine miles distant.

In 1822, he started building a railway which would carry passengers as well as goods. The line, running from Stockton to Darlington, was opened on September 2, 1825. Stephenson himself drove the engine, which drew 34 small cars carrying coal and flour and a number of passengers.

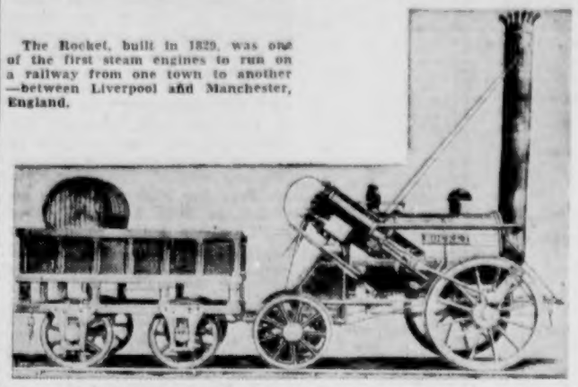
A man on horseback rode in front of the train, waving a flag. He thought that he would be able to lead it all the way, that the train would never go fast enough to pass him. But presently George made a signal to him to get out of the way, and he set the train going at 30 miles an hour.

It was a happy moment for Stephenson when the train reached Darlington without accident. The train was unloaded, then started back, carrying only passengers. When Stockton was reached, it was found that about 600 people were riding in or hanging onto the trucks of the little train.

That was the first time in the history of the world that a steam engine had drawn a train carrying passengers over a railway.

The second railroad, also built by Stephenson, was between Liverpool and Manchester. Stephenson's son Robert helped to design the engine, which was called the Rocket and was built on a new design.

From that time, the engines of George and Robert Stephenson were purchased in many countries.



The Rocket, built in 1829, was one of the first steam engines to run on a railway from one town to another—between Liverpool and Manchester, England.

Music Has Aided Mental Patient

DETROIT, April 28.—(AP)—A year's progress by "Music Master X," the mental patient who attracted attention by his brilliant piano recital before the National Federation of Music Clubs one year ago, was reported Saturday to the federation convention.

"Music Master X," whose identity is kept secret, at one time was considered a "hopeless" mental case.

"A year ago he could play the piano but he could not co-ordinate his mind and hands enough to turn the pages of his music," Dr. Ira Altshuler said. "Today he does so.

"He now chooses the music he wants to play instead of waiting for us to tell him what to play."

Reviewing the case history of "X", Dr. Altshuler told the convention that at one time the musician was unable to dress himself, feed himself or engage in a conversation.

Dealers Ask End All Timber Control

End of timber control is vitally necessary "before the Canadian people will get the kind of lumber they want where and when they want it," Gordon E. Konantz, president of the Western Retail Lumbermen's Association, declared in a statement today after a two-day meeting in the Macdonald hotel of directors of the association.

ABOUT 90 DIRECTORS, representing lumber dealers from Western Ontario to the Rocky Mountains, attended the meeting, at which routine business was the chief matter for discussion.

Mr. Konantz declared that no other branch of retail trade, with the exception of grocers, is or has been working on as small a margin of profit as the retail lumber dealers.

"We are primarily interested in lumber being priced so that people can build and we repeat our belief that the ending of timber control is necessary before this can be achieved," the president stated.

MR. KONANTZ concluded his statement with: "We believe that prices of lumber will find their proper level only in a free competitive market, which in the long run will mean lower cost of building in Canada.

"Costly delays due to shortages have not been eliminated by timber control and under the free competitive market of the past such shortages have never been known."

Mr. Konantz is from Winnipeg. Hector J. Craig, also of Winnipeg, is secretary-manager of the association.

Tomorrow's the Day

Tomorrow the Dominion budget is to be brought down, uncertainty will end, and everybody will know the financial program for the coming year—and its bearing on his pocket and personal fortunes. No peacetime budget was ever awaited with keener interest, chiefly because everyone expects—with official encouragement—that there will be a substantial cutting down of taxes.

There are all the usual reasons why the statement should not be longer delayed—and also one reason that does not usually exist. For weeks budget-guessing has been a favorite pastime of the gentlemen in the press gallery. Among them they have sent out budgetary plans enough for a dozen countries. No blame is coming to them for passing along to anxious readers whatever hints and surmises came to them, since these have been given out for what they were worth and not as being official.

But the result has been to create anticipations not all of which can possibly be verified. Hopes have been aroused some of which are bound to be disappointed. In some quarters resentment has been caused which may turn out to be uncalled-for. It is as well therefore that the guessing period is about over, the time of uncertainty nearly at an end, and we are to be told definitely who is to pay how much.

Art and Politics

Kirsten Flagstad is said to have suffered a rough experience in Philadelphia the other night where pickets paraded before the hall in which she was to sing and objectors within the hall dropped stench bombs and booed the artist.

All this disturbance was due to the fact that Flagstad returned to her native Norway during the war and is alleged to have been a Nazi sympathizer.

Similarly Paul Robeson was forbidden to give a concert in another American city because of his Communist activities.

It is quite right and proper for the public to rebuke those whose political activities are a menace to the democratic way of life. But it is to be devoutly hoped that this process does not degenerate into a witch-hunt.

Artists, of course, are within their rights in holding whatever political opinions they choose. And North Americans surely will not be so bigotted as to reject great art because there is some remote context of an unpopular political belief.

It would be a very great pity if sensible men and women should travel back to the wartime bigotry that was inclined to boycott all art with an unpopular national label.

There is, incidentally, a great deal of difference between the case of Paul Robeson and the case of Kirsten Flagstad. Robeson, by his own admission, is a Communist agitator first and a great artist second. Flagstad, whatever her past indiscretions may have been, appears to be engaged in no political activity at present.

Revolution in Quebec

Communists plan to stage a revolution in Quebec next year to celebrate the hundredth anniversary of Karl Marx. At any rate this is what Premier Maurice Duplessis told the legislature of the province the other day. He had, he said, come into possession of the key to a code unearthed by the police in a Montreal raid, by the aid of which he was able to discover the plot.

There is no reason to doubt that Communists would like to take control of Quebec. But that they plan to do so is not convincingly shown by Mr. Duplessis' statement. There are too many internal improbabilities in the story for it to carry conviction.

For one thing, 1948 will not be the anniversary of Marx' birth, nor of his death, nor of his marriage, nor of the launching of his scheme to revolutionize the world. For another, what would the alleged plotters suppose two or three thousand Montreal policemen, several hundred provincial policemen and RCMP officers, to be doing while 100 Reds took over the city hall and 120 others moved into police headquarters?

These and some other features strongly suggest that the Premier has not made a good job of the decoding. They rob his version of the supposed program of authenticity. As they leave the story, it is a broken reed on which to base his claim that parliament should outlaw the "Labor-Progressive party"—thereby driving that organization under-ground and encouraging the zealots to resort to plotting violence as the only avenue of political action open to them.

If the Premier's translation of the alleged code is correct, the best way to deal with the plotters is to broadcast the facts widely and persistently. The rest can be left to the common sense of the public. Communism can only live and spread behind an iron curtain of secrecy. Stalin is proclaiming that to all the world.

That Eastern Boundary

One of the crucial questions on which the foreign ministers reached a deadlock at Moscow was that of marking out the eastern border of Germany. That is a key issue, because where the boundary is placed will have a good deal to do with the possibility of restoring Germany to a self-supporting status. And—the world can hardly have forgotten—the cry of more "living room" was the slogan with which Hitler roused and united the German people for war.

The tentative boundary line, agreed to at Potsdam, follows the line of the Oder river. Roughly it is the line suggested by the Curzon commission following World War I. This gives Poland a large slice of German territory, to compensate it for Polish territory annexed by Russia.

Mr. Molotov said last year that this tentative boundary must be permanent. But the Potsdam conferees said the permanent boundary should be settled when peace terms were being forged. Mr. Marshall wanted to give Germany part of the farm land involved, urging that Germany needs this to produce food.

The issue has been complicated because the Poles ousted a million German farmers from the area they tentatively control, and these are now among the displaced persons in western Germany. Their farms have been taken over by Poles, who no doubt need them to make up for the farming country Russia sheared off from Eastern Poland.

This shifting of population is one of the reasons why Molotov wants the border left where it is. Russia is the party which benefitted by the shuffle of territory. To interfere with the set-up would raise the question of what to do with the displaced German farmers or with the Polish farmers who took over their land.

It can be taken for granted that Russia will not give back all the Polish territory it appropriated, and that Poland will not give back all the German territory it took as compensation. But this is not to say there could not be a stabilizing compromise if Warsaw and Moscow were willing to concede something in the name of humanity.

THE TIMID SOUL -:- -:- by Webster

The Race Is On

BY ELMORE PHILPOTT

Our generation is in a race. The real rivals in this race are not capitalism against communism, Slav versus Anglo-American, east versus west, south versus north.

The real race is between the believers in world law and order and those determined to maintain the obsolete system of multi-national lawlessness—that is, anarchy.

Under the old disorder—which in a single lifetime has given us the most drastic revolution of all time, two world wars, and the greatest economic collapse in history—there is no law above the level of the sixty or seventy sovereign nations.

PHILPOTT

Each nation literally has power of life and death over all its citizens. Under its "sovereign powers" it can make war against any other nation—for any or no cause. And if any of its own citizens hesitate to "go along" with the war — the attacking nation can court martial the balkers. It can put them up against a brick wall and shoot them.

FOR THOUSANDS of years seers have had visions of a world free from lawlessness. The prophets whose words are recorded in the Bible wrote about it again and again.

Even the Russian Czar actually proposed a united world, at the close of the wars with Napoleon. The Duke of Wellington, and his pals, doubled up with laughter at an idea so fantastic. The Czar—rebuffed—reverted to type and became the worst prong of the three-pronged Holy Alliance—the devil's fork of those times. But, just over a hundred years ago, Tennyson wrote his famous poem Locksley Hall, in which he foresaw the passing of lawlessness.

He saw ghastly air battles (and that was sixty years before any airplane left the ground). He foresaw popular uprisings, "the south winds rushing warm" and "the standards of the people plunging through the thunder storm."

Then he saw world peace, under law, thus:

"Till the war drum throbbed no longer, and the battle flags were furled
In the parliament of man, the federation of the world.
There the common sense of most shall hold a fretful realm in awe
And the kindly earth shall slumber, lapt in universal law."

PRESIDENT TRUMAN told us not long ago that he had carried the above quotation around in his pocket book ever since his high school days.

I said to myself, why doesn't he take it out of his wallet and do something about getting it written into the basic law of all mankind?

There is no worse—more fatal—error than to suppose that the United Nations, as constituted, is a "parliament of man," or "federation of the world."

As things now stand, the individual nations have the highest power to make law, and to break the peace.

A PROFESSOR not long ago ridiculed the advocates of a Parliament of Man. "Heaven is not attained in a single jump," he commented.

Maybe so. But we are now in plain sight of getting to hell in one jump if we do not bestir ourselves and go ahead, whether we are ready or not.

Canada was not ready for Confederation in 1867, but the statesmen went ahead anyway.

The United States were certainly not ready to set up their new level of government, but had to do that out of necessity in 1776. It took thirteen years to revise the original imperfect basis to something that really did work.

The world is not ready to set up a Parliament of Man—it will never be ready. But as between its unreadiness to end lawlessness—that is, literally, lack of law—and between getting blown to atoms, the human family would vote for a chance to live.

The Assembly Opens

BY MAX FREEDMAN

NEW YORK, April 28.—There are ghosts at this Assembly of the United Nations on Palestine. They are very important. In some ways they are the most important thing here. They must be understood.

First there is the ghost of Lord Balfour. He began it all. The Balfour declaration has become a rope of sand. It can be twisted into almost any shape and it can hold nothing. It means one thing to the Jew; it has another meaning for Arabs; and the British give it a reading of their own.

The ironic thing is that the Balfour declaration contains scarcely a word written by Balfour. It is the work of other hands. The present form is the fourth draft. The writer has been privileged, in London, to see one of the earlier forms of the Declaration.

THAT PHRASE — the Balfour Declaration—sounds very pompous and formal. Actually, all that happened was this. After months of negotiation with Jewish leaders, Balfour, as foreign secretary, sat down and wrote a letter on November 2, 1917, to Lord Rothschild in London. The letter said:

I have much pleasure in conveying to you on behalf of His Majesty's Government the following declaration of sympathy with Jewish Zionist aspirations, which has been submitted to and approved by the Cabinet:—

His Majesty's Government view with favour the establishment in Palestine of a National Home for the Jewish people, and will use their best endeavours to facilitate the achievement of this object, it being clearly understood that nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine, or the rights and political status enjoyed by Jews in any other country.

I should be grateful if you would bring this declaration to the knowledge of the Zionist Federation.

That's the famous Balfour Declaration. From this tiny seed has grown a great hope and a great tragedy. Balfour was a strange man. He had a mind like ice. Emotion frightened him. But one ideal laid its spell on him and to it he gave the loyalty of his heart. He wanted the Jewish home in Palestine.

Then there is the ghost of Lloyd George. He was Balfour's Prime Minister and said that anti-semitism is the foulest disease that can ravage humanity.

There's another ghost — Woodrow Wilson. He speaks for the strength of the United States. Without him, the Balfour declaration never would have been issued.

But the Arabs have their ghosts, too.

There is Emir Feisal who marched with Lawrence through desert wastes until Arabia was free. He welcomed the Zionists. He called them his cousins. He made a treaty of friendship with them. This was the golden hour of Arab-Jewish relations. It was followed by trouble and disenchantment. Feisal fell; and after him, came the formidable figure of Ibn Saud whom Lawrence of Arabia called "the last protest of the desert against Europe."

TODAY the Arabs remember not Feisal's friendship with Zionism but his pledge that all Arabs would be free. That dream has come true everywhere — except in Palestine. Five Arab states belong to the United Nations. So will Transjordan, before long. When will the Arabs of Palestine be independent? When will the flood of Jews cease? When will the rest of the world open its doors to refugees?

Angry questions. Obstinate questions. Inevitable questions. They will not be stilled. They demand, and deserve, an answer.

Nuisance Costs

Financial Post

Once upon a time it was a maxim that "A penny saved is a penny earned."

The difficulty today is to save the pennies in the face of the "nuisance prices" on such every-day items as chocolate bars, chewing gum, cigars and cigarettes.

These prices of six cents, seven cents, 14 cents, 33 cents, etc., are hangovers from war-imposed taxation and restrictions on manufacture.

The Dominion Government has no trouble with such prices. It simply mints more pennies to keep up with the nation's cash needs then takes the pennies back in the form of taxation dollars. But to the average citizen the "plus tax" prices are an irritation and an extra pocket burden.

Storekeepers everywhere would welcome the return to standard prices. The public could feel that here, at last, was something which was returning to normal. The only loser would be the government. It might have to cut expenditures by firing the man who counts the pennies.

Canadians All

London Free Press

The joint Parliamentary commission investigating Indian affairs in Canada has already decided that an Eskimo is an Indian, as far as they are concerned. Perhaps they might go further and discover that both Indians and Eskimos are human beings with much the same capabilities as the rest of us, and that the country would be better off if they were given an opportunity.

Nobility

Ottawa Journal

All nations, Canada included, plead for just, realistic plans towards world healing. Not all of them, including Canada, stand prepared to make the necessary adjustments when the adjustments affect them directly. A case in point is the plight of the Jews. We speak sympathy for their tragedy, with their demand to go to Palestine. How many among us, knowing well that Palestine could not possibly absorb all Jews presently homeless, urge that they be permitted to come to Canada? More, how many among us, even if we believed that German emigration would solve the problem of Germany, would be willing to accept a sizeable German immigration?

Nobility, it seems, is something we demand from the other fellow.

Unusual There

Halifax Herald

Chambers' peregrinating palm tree isn't all just far-fetched fun and fancy. We have had a remarkable winter in these parts (if it could be so described). While other sections of the Dominion have had their weather "mean" and "tough," the weather hereabouts for the greater part of the winter season would have done credit to an early spring.

The snow-shovels remained rusting in the basements; skis and toboggans were out; and there wasn't enough ice on the Northwest Arm to bear a rabbit, let alone a human being. This is perhaps the first time within living memory that the Arm has remained open during an entire winter. It is as free of ice today as it will be in July.

Those Canteen Funds

BY HARPER PROWSE, MLA

A special parliamentary committee is discussing the question of what is to be done with the $6,000,000 at present standing to the credit of service canteen funds. One of the proposals which has been made is that instead of setting up three different funds, one for each of the armed forces, all the monies be consolidated into one United Services Fund.

This seems to me to be an eminently sensible and acceptable suggestion. I cannot see much sense in setting up three sets of committees where one would do. It would also prevent any of the dissention which would be bound to arise if three different bodies were dealing separately with similar cases. And it would prevent the necessity of having the three services squabbling over details as to how the money should be divided.

AT THE PRESENT time there is an understandable tendency for veterans of the three services to want to hold themselves separate from one another. This is a natural result of the high morale which existed in them and which was based on the belief, common to all services, that the particular branch to which he belongs was the most important of the three. It is, however, a tendency which should be guarded against and which all of us should be able to see now no longer serves a useful purpose.

Actually the navy and air force already have funds set up and they have been serving their veterans for more than a year. For some reason the army has not yet set up a fund. It is hoped that a fund from which army veterans may also obtain assistance will be available before many more months have passed.

It has been suggested that the handling of these funds could best be left to the department of veterans' affairs. Without reflecting in any way upon the ability of DVA officials to administer these funds, I do not think this is entirely satisfactory. In the first place, I believe such funds should be handled by some independent group entirely divorced from the civil service.

In the second place, as DVA's offices are located in only larger cities there would be a tendency for veterans who live in these cities to get full use of the fund, while those who live in rural districts and the remote towns would find it difficult to obtain assistance.

DURING THE rehabilitation period sterling service was rendered to both Canada and our veterans by citizens' rehabilitation committees. I imagine the men who served on these committees would be willing to undertake to administer these benevolent funds. Their experience gained in assisting veterans to rehabilitate themselves would be of great value in the administration of these funds. In these committees are men who not only have full sympathy for veterans, but a good knowledge of their needs. A decision to use them would help to make the funds available in practically every district in Canada and within easy access of those who may need help.

WHAT HAPPENS TO TAXES

Editor, Bulletin: What does Mr. Krug mean by saying that "income taxes have been raised to a point where purchasing power is being destroyed?" I have always been under the impression that when the government takes a dollar from me in taxes it spends it. Am I now being invited to believe that, having taken the dollar from me, it always, or sometimes, proceeds to destroy it? Where and by what means, is this destruction of purchasing-power being effected? Does the government maintain an incinerator in the Bank of Canada? Or does it "destroy" the money in the digestor at Eddy's mill, like the butter coupons?

It will be highly disturbing to the taxpayers if they learn that the government is wantonly destroying their money; and if it can be proved they will certainly make a stir about it. But they must have some evidence. If it is not the government that is destroying this purchasing-power, who is it?

Mr. Krug thinks that the government could pay off the whole national debt by issuing "new" money, in some form or other, to cover the amount of the debt. At least I take that to be what he means by the phrase, "refinancing through the Bank of Canada." He evidently believes that this would not cause inflation. He is of course aware that all the leading officials of the Department of Finance, the Bank of Canada and the chartered banks think it would. But he considers that his opinion outweighs the opinions of all the aforementioned officials rolled into one. Doubtless one should preserve a healthy independence of mind; and not allow oneself to be too much dominated by the opinions of experts, real or supposed. But what has Mr. Krug done that the people of Canada should place such immense confidence in his advice?

TAXPAYER.

HOSPITAL LOTTERIES

Editor, Bulletin—I note the large number of cities and towns throughout Canada, who are embarking on a hospital program. Would it not be a common-sense idea to save the taxpayers an increased mill rate for the next 30 years by the lottery method? We can build, equip and maintain our Canadian hospitals, and have no annual deficits as we have today. We can have free hospitalization, give our nurses $150 per month, and pay salaries while training.

Now is the time to besiege our members at Ottawa and Edmonton with letters by the thousands, demanding Dominion-wide lottery legislation. If Ireland can have the best hospital system in the world, why cannot Canada have the second best?

TOLERANCE

Editor, Bulletin—I recently read an article which states that the Parsees "have the most abominable practices of any civilized people we have ever heard of." The article speaks also of a Parsee funeral as a "loathsome spectacle."

What would your readers think if an Oriental were to describe Christian methods of disposing of the dead? How they dress up the corpse in fine clothes, put it on silk cushions, shut it up in a beautiful piece of cabinet-work, form a dismal procession, every one dressed in black and looking solemn and glum, then bury the box in a deep hole, often right in a city with people living all round. He might, perhaps, marvel at Occidentals' ideas of sanitation, and ask himself whether these curious peoples would adopt the same practice if dead animals instead of humans were in boxes.

I feel urged to beg members of one religion or race not to think, speak or act in a disparaging manner of the religion or customs of other peoples, which are equally sacred, not to mention hygienic, to them. May I be permitted to say that, having friends who are Hindus, Mussulmans, Buddhists, Zoroastrians, Sikhs and Christians, it is not pleasant to have my friends of one faith speak slightingly of my friends of other faiths?

Shall we ever have that kindliness to peoples of other races and creeds which, as every religion, without exception, has proclaimed, is the only thing that really matters in true religion?

MIND AND MATTER

Editor, Bulletin. — The pure materialistic doctrine that infected the intellectual world of the last century still traps many within its narrow orbit of reasoning although the greatest scientific minds of the present age have rejected that creed as untenable.

The fundamental dogma of that belief is that mind and matter are of the one and same nature. But thought is not matter. Matter is recognized only by its physical properties, i.e. mass, weight, electrical charge, etc. Brain is not analogous to thought for brain is measurable by physical standards expressed in mathematical units while thought cannot possibly be gauged by these standards. To admit with the biologists that areas of the cerebral cortex probably fuction as association centres where the memory of sensations is stored does not bridge the gap between mind and matter. We may attach electrodes to the cranium and record a wave pattern generated by an electrical impulse but this is the result of an activity of the brain concomitant with thought and not thought itself. Ideas have neither wave lengths nor positive or negative charges, the most faithful reproduction of this wave pattern will not regenerate an idea.

We see that the materialist in his attempt to measure all phenomena by a quantitative scale will even go so far as to "denature" that which he cannot encompass by his chosen standard. Who is this professor who claims that "there are no such things as those denoted by nouns but—only activities"? Granting that all particles of matter are in constant motion we must remember that there can be no "activities" if there be not something "actuated", and it is to this very existence that the determining noun is applied.

Then there are concepts of the mind such as "truth", etc—that cannot be incorporated in a scale of physical values, yet were they to be denied, the validity of the arguments against them would thereby be destroyed.

It would not be fair of course to accuse all "materialists" of intellectual dishonesty for the inductive method of reasoning, with its tangible proofs, does seem all embracing to some. Others are not so guiltless however, and start out with a cherished aim of disproving the notion of free will consequently negating moral values.

A man cannot rightly call himself a scientist until he is willing to appraise all evidence and to limit his speculations to that which can be verified by experimental science.

Cancer Drive Fund Reaches $5,000

Subscriptions to the Northern Alberta Branch of the Canadian Cancer Society's drive to raise $25,000 in Edmonton and district passed the $5,000 mark Saturday, and officials were hopeful that the quota would be met before the end of the campaign on May 3.

Numerous subscriptions were being received from country points, and officials were confident that when the organizations set up in district areas completed their canvass that each area would meet their required quotas.

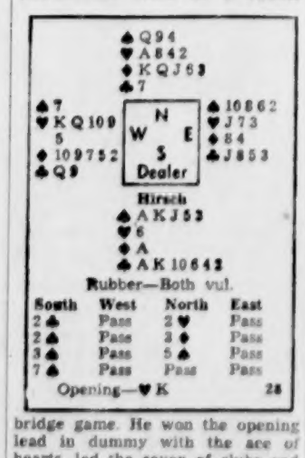
In Edmonton, more than 200 women are making a house to house canvass, soliciting aid in conquering Canada's second greatest cause of deaths. In addition they are making a canvass of the business section of the city, and are being assisted in this work by teams recruited from city service clubs and other organizations.

Bridge

By William E. McKenney

To get the most fun out of today's hand, let me suggest that you cover up the East and West cards. Remember that your contract is seven spades. What is the safest way to play the hand to make the contract?

Larry Hirsch, one of the winners of the Vanderbilt Cup tournament, played this hand in a rubber bridge game. He won the opening lead in dummy with the ace of hearts, led the seven of clubs and won in his own hand with the king.



Rubber—Both vul.

South	West	North	East
2♠	Pass	2♥	Pass
2♠	Pass	3♦	Pass
3♠	Pass	5♣	Pass
7♠	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening—♥K

Now he trumped the deuce of clubs in dummy with the four of spades, and returned to his hand with a diamond. The four of clubs was played and West showed out. Hirsch trumped with dummy's nine of spades, and then could ruff either a heart or diamond, pick up the adverse trumps, and all of his clubs were good.

If he had attempted to cross-ruff the hand out, he could not have counted to thirteen. His line of play also protected against four clubs in the West hand. If West had not shown out on the third round, Hirsch could have trumped with the queen of spades in dummy. Then of course he would have had to get a three-two break in the trump suit.

Some mines in Peru, still being worked, date back to the Incas.

Catholic Drama Festival Ends

Plays by performers of three Roman Catholic groups were presented before a crowd of 500 at the Masonic Temple Friday night, in the closing presentation of the Catholic Youth Organization annual drama festival.

AT THE CLOSING of the plays the Rev. Brother Ansbert, adjudicator, gave a brief address concerning the plays and acting.

"Happy Journey", presented by the Cathedral Senior CYO, was named best play of the festival and was awarded the Archbishop MacDonald trophy. Mary Heaton and Robert O'Brien, members of the cast of "Happy Journey" were named best actress and best actor of the festival.

"Madame Est Sans Bonne" presented by the parish of the Immaculate Conception, was the winner of the French award.

Archbishop MacDonald, in presenting awards, commended all entries for their fine performances.

"THE BRAVE SHALL SERVE" by the Sacred Heart CYO, was the first of three plays Friday night. Fine performances were given by Jeanne Sisson and five other members of the cast.

"Banquo's Chair" by St. Alphonsus CYO was another drama. Players were Ross McIlhargey, Joseph McNally and Jack Holmes.

"Heaven On Earth" a comedy, was presented by St. John's CYO. Phyllis Halwa, Elsie Ziegler and George Allen gave fine performances.

A reception for contestants in the festival was held in the Rosary Hall. The Junior Catholic Women's League was in charge.

Draws $50 Fine For Foiling Thugs

NEW YORK, April 28—(AP)—The attractive wife of a Seattle businessman was fined $50 and orally reprimanded Sunday for turning in a fire alarm summoning aid and resulting in the capture of two of five men who she said were beating and robbing her husband.

The wife, Mrs. Pearl Jensen, 39, told police she and her husband had been sightseeing in Chinatown early Sunday and were going back to their hotel when she was set upon by five men. She said in court that she turned in the fire alarm to summon aid because "in my town one would do that sort of thing."

After Mrs. Jensen pleaded guilty to a charge of turning in a false alarm, magistrate Joseph M. Levine asked Mrs. Jensen: "Do you know it costs the city quite a bit of money to go out on call?"

Her husband, William F. Jensen, 43, was treated in hospital for lacerations.

Pasquale Pitulli, 33, and Guglilmo Cossident, 35, of Brooklyn, who were caught, were charged with robbing Jensen and were held on $2,000 bail each.

Warspite Total Loss

GLASGOW, April 28—(Reuters)—The veteran British battleship Warspite, which ran on to the rocky west England coast on her way to the shipbreakers, is a "total loss" Walter Jenkins, director of a Clydeside shipbreaking firm, said Saturday.

See Big Increase In Flax Seeding

Increase in flax acreage in Alberta this year may be as high as 300 per cent, according to a survey conducted by department of agriculture fieldmen, results of which were issued Saturday morning.

IT IS EXPECTED that barley acreage will be boosted by 20 per cent this year, but wheat and oats seedings will decline. Wheat acreage is expected to drop by six per cent and oats by three per cent, the report discloses.

"Seeding cannot be said to have started in the province, although there have been a few cases reported in the south," the report says.

Little hope is held out for seeding to become general before May 5.

Supplies of seed for cereal and forage crops are considered good, though some difficulty is anticipated in obtaining sufficient flax seed for the greatly increased acreages.

MOISTURE CONDITIONS except for one area in Peace River are considered excellent.

Frame to Attend Citizenship Talk

A conference to settle problems of education of applicants for citizenship, being held in Ottawa this week, will be attended by W. E. Frame, chief superintendent of schools, an announcement by Dr. W. H. Swift, deputy minister of education, stated Saturday. Mr. Frame is attending the conference at the invitation of Hon. Colin Gibson, secretary of state. The problems of education have arisen from the new Canadian Citizenship Act.

Cancer Kills Children too

IT RESPECTS NEITHER AGE NOR SEX

Most people are astounded to learn that cancer kills children.

They had always thought of this deadly killer as a disease of "old ladies".

That's because cancer has been regarded as a "hush-hush" subject. No one wanted to talk about it. It was almost as if there were some shame attached to the word.

And the cancer death rate rose. This year alone, more than 14,000 Canadians are doomed to die of cancer. That is an appalling total, but even more tragic is the fact that one in three might be saved through early recognition and prompt effective treatment.

PROTECT YOURSELF! CANCER'S DANGER SIGNALS

1. Any sore that does not heal, particularly about the tongue, mouth or lips.
2. A painless lump or thickening, especially in the breast, lip or tongue.
3. Progressive change in the colour or size of a wart, mole or birth-mark.
4. Persistent indigestion.
5. Persistent hoarseness, unexplained cough, or difficulty in swallowing.
6. Blood-stained discharge from the nipple or from any of the natural body openings.
7. Any radical change in normal bowel habits.

Guard Those You Love GIVE to Conquer Cancer...

WHAT WE CAN DO ABOUT IT! First of all, we can talk about cancer. We can discuss it as freely as mumps, measles or scarlet fever. The more we do talk about it, the more readily the "danger signals" of the cancer will be recognized.

Next, we can support the work of the Canadian Cancer Society.

Research, education, improved treatment facilities. These are the objectives of the Canadian Cancer Society. This work is made possible by the voluntary contributions. Give your support. Join the Canadian Cancer Society and learn the truth about cancer.

Reds Clip Pirates Twice

Babe Ruth Day Fails To Inspire Home Runs

NEW YORK, April 28 —(CP)— The home run that was Babe Ruth's trademark was less in evidence than usual as the majors celebrated Babe Ruth Day yesterday, with nary a four-bagger being clouted in Yankee Stadium as the Bambino watched New York Yankees drop a 1-0 decision to Washington Senators.

In St. Louis Vern Stephens came through in Ruthian style with a three-run homer in the second game to enable the Browns to sweep their doubleheader with Chicago White Sox, 4-2 and 4-3. Chicago pulled a triple play on the Brownies in the nightcap.

RAIN HALTED play at the end of the ninth inning in Boston with the Red Sox tied with Philadelphia Athletics 6-6. The second game of the scheduled doubleheader was called off.

In the National League rookie Frankie Baumholtz and veteran Bucky Walters led Cincinnati Reds to a double victory over Pittsburgh Pirates as young Baumholtz singled home the winning run for a 2-1 victory in the 12-inning afterpiece after Walters, pitching his first game of the season, set the Bucs down with six hits to win the opener 6-1.

IN CHICAGO a crowd of 36,839 shivered in sympathy in 37-degree weather as southpaw Johnny Schmitz chilled St. Louis Cardinals with a four-hit shutout to give the Cubs a 3-0 win. Three errors by the usually fancy-fielding Red Birds didn't help any as they dropped their fifth straight game.

Philadelphia Phils took both ends of a doubleheader from Boston Braves by identical 5-4 scores and Brooklyn Dodgers outslugged New York Giants 9-8 in other games played.

RUTH CAME BACK to the Yankee Stadium for a long overdue special day in his honor to answer a thunderous ovation from 58,339 fans with a wave of the hand and a few hesitant words spoken in a husky semi-whisper.

Still thin and weak after an 82-day ordeal in hospital as the result of a serious neck operation, the greatest home run slugger of all time reverted to form with a message to the "kids of America" who always have been his most faithful followers.

"The only real game in the world is baseball," he said as his eyes filled and his throat choked from the warmth of his greeting. "In this game you have to come up from youth. You've got to start way down at the bottom, if you're going to be successful like those fellows over there."

Charlton Finally Cops English Cup

LONDON, April 28 -(CP)—Charlton Athletic—often a bridesmaid but never a bride—today was hugging its first Football Association Cup after scoring a thrilling 1-0 overtime victory Saturday over Burnley before 100,000 gaily-clad soccer fans at London's Wembley Stadium.

The victory wiped out the bitter memory of last year—when Charlton was blitzed 4-1—also in overtime—by Derby County.

CHRIS DUFFY, 27-year-old Scottish outside left, whapped up the prized emblem of soccer supremacy by booting one in from the 15-yard mark at the 27 minute mark of the first overtime period. His kick broke up a close, defensive game.

While the partisan crowd cheered, the Duchess of Gloucester—sister-in-law of the King—presented the Charlton club with the Cup and gave medals to each of the tired Charlton players.

The Charlton victory had another significance for the London club. After a poor showing in league competition during recent years Charlton was threatened with relegation to the English League's second division. But winning the Cup will keep the team up among the elite.

Derby Hopefuls Fail To Impress

NEW YORK, April 28 (CP)—Kentucky Derby candidates had two major engagements at separate tracks Saturday, but none of the eligible showed enough to cause much concern to Phalanx and Faultless, current choices for next Saturday's 73rd blue grass classic at Churhill Downs.

AT HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., Mrs. M. E. Whitney's Bullet Proof closed with a rush to win the $30,000-added Chesapeake stakes ahead of Secnav and Royal Governor, but his time for the 1 1-16 miles —1:44 4-5—was only a cut above average.

With Mrs. John Hertz Owners Choice among the also-rans, Bullet Proof paid $30.20 for $2 straight tickets. Secnav, two lengths behind the winner returned $9.20 for place.

A MILD UPSET marked the six-furlong feature at the Churhill Downs opening in Louisville when King Bay finished 1 ½ lengths ahead of On Trust, California's chief derby horse, and Doublejay. King Bay clicked off the six panels in 1.11 4-5, but his connections said the colt will probably pass up the derby for the Preakness.

OHA President Claims Toronto Hockey Temple

TORONTO, April 28 (CP) George Panter, president of the Ontario Hockey Association, said in an interview Saturday that when the first official opportunity presents itself he will suggest that the Memorial Cup hockey finals be played in Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens for the next five years.

Mr. Panter, who accompanied Toronto St. Michael's to western Canada for their Memorial Cup finals against Moose Jaw Canucks, was present when fans threw bottles on the ice in the third game of the series at Regina. St. Mikes won the best-of-seven junior Canadian championship series four straight.

WHAT HAPPENED out west is something I wouldn't like to see used as a lever to force the games east," he said. "Small attendances, constant shifting from one city to another and the deplorable conduct of Moose Jaw fans, who are the most rabid I have seen anywhere, will likely weight the balance, but there are enough other things without using these.

"The press is continually writing about playing these games for the fans. Why don't they talk about playing for the clubs and the players? They say the fans deserve a chance to see the finals once in a while. I'd say the clubs deserve the benefits.

"UNDENIABLY, Toronto is the hockey temple of Canada. The west likes to come here. They usually have support from more than 50 per cent of the fans. There is no rink in the west fit to hold the Memorial Cup finals and, possibly aside from Winnipeg, there is no city that can stand the traffic at $2 per head. . . .

AL PICKARD RAPS PANTER PROPOSAL

Regina, April 28 (CP)—Al Pickard of Regina, vice-president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, said last night that playing of all Memorial Cup games in Maple Leaf Gardens in Toronto would bring more money to junior hockey clubs but would not satisfy western or some eastern supporters.

PICKARD was commenting on statements by George Panter, Ontario Hockey Association president, who said he would suggest that the Memorial Cup final be played in the Gardens for the next five years.

Panter, however, had arbitrarily chosen last year's series to show how the CAHA benefited to the extent of $51,000 from Garden's games, Pickard said.

LAST YEAR'S SERIES was a seven-game affair and there would not have been half the amount coming to the CAHA if it had been a four-game series.

Futher, he said, some eastern clubs outside of Toronto would perhaps like the opportunity of seeing a Memorial Cup series on their own ice.

"The whole matter will be thrashed out at the next meeting of the CAHA. It is a matter which should be decided on each year and not a long term basis as Panter suggests."

Seeks Leo's Help For Baseball Film

HOLLYWOOD, April 28 —(AP)—This may be news to Leo Durocher, suspended manager of Brooklyn Dodgers, but "The Lip" is going to be offered the job of technical advisor when Hunt Stromberg begins directing a movie based on J. G. Taylor Spink's "Judge Landis and his 20 years of baseball." Stromberg's studio said Durocher would be approached next week.

FRIENDLY RIVALS: Bill Durnan, left, and Turk Broda appear to be on the best of terms in the above photo. However, they will be battling against each other tonight when the Canadiens meet the NHL All-Stars here in the fifth game of their current exhibition series. Durnan is the Canadiens' net custodian and Broda, who kicks out pucks for the Toronto Maple Leafs, is between the posts for the Stars. Each team has won two games.

Canadiens Whip Stars In Spirited Contest

CALGARY, April 28 —(CP)— A great second-period outburst that netted six goals gave Montreal Canadiens their second victory on Calgary ice when they defeated National Hockey League All-Stars 8-3 here Saturday night.

Both clubs left Calgary last night for a return engagement in Edmonton today.

After a somewhat listless first period the crowd of 3,080 paying customers was brought to its feet time and again in the middle session as the clubs put on a great display of fast skating and team work to score a total of eight goals.

MAURICE RICHARD and Max Bentley carried on their scoring feud as they did in the regular league season with Richard holding a slight edge, scoring three goals, while Bentley notched two.

The game was much faster than the previous encounter on Calgary ice and All-Stars passing plays were starting to click all down the line, but the work of big Bill Durnan in the nets for Canadiens was once again spectacular and many of Stars' smart efforts wound up in the wily custodian's pads.

FOR THE FIRST time in the series, a slight bit of feeling crept into the game and Lamoureux and Horeck topped it off with a brief fistic display in the third period. This was more to the fans liking and they cheered loudly when Lamoureux drew a four-minute penalty for his efforts.

CANADIENS—Durnan; Lamoureux, Reardon; O'Connor; Blake, Richard; subs: Peters, Chamberlain, Reay, Carse, Leger, Gravelle, Fillion, Harmon.

ALL-STARS—Broda; Stewart, McCaig; McNab; Lindsay, Horeck; subs: M. Bentley, D. Bentley, Mosienko, Warwick, Carveth, J. Conacher, Abel, Quackenbush.

Officials—Elmer Lach and Ken Mosdell.

FIRST PERIOD: Scoring—None. Penalties—Richard, Lamoureux.

SECOND PERIOD: 1—All-Stars, M. Bentley (D. Billing Battles Dusek Thursday

Al Billing, a capable matman from Hollywood, will make his Edmonton debut Thursday night at the Avenue sports pavilion when he bumps into Danny Dusek, who wrestled to a draw with Babe Zaharias on last week's program.

A bout that is attracting almost as much interest as the headliner featuring Al Mills and Ron Etchinson, is the Cecil "Tiger" Goldstick-Dallord Ouelette challenge contest.

OUELETTE, who hails from Vancouver, flung the challenge at Tiger, former west coast Navy lightweight champion, and the popular Edmonton lad decided the time was about ripe to start along the comeback trail. Goldstick, who was a top drawing card in Coast bouts, was forced to retire after an emergency operation, but that was a few years back and he's reported in fine shape again.

Stampeders Go Down As Defence Wobbles

Royals Chalk Up Easy 7 to 3 Win In Opening Test

TORONTO, April 28 (CP) —It's been 17 years since the Allan Cup last rested in the hometown of its donor, but the eager, hard-skating Montreal Royals gave notice Saturday night they might be the team to bring it back.

They outplayed the defending champion Calgary Stampeders to score an easy 7-3 victory in the first game of the best-of-seven series for the Canadian senior hockey title.

BEYOND THE FIRST 10 minutes when the Stampeders led for the only time in the game on Joe Fisher's solo goal, there was little doubt in the minds of the 11,300-odd fans as to the final outcome.

The picture reversed suddenly at mid-period and a pair of tallies within 35 seconds off the sticks of Cliff Malone and Doug Harvey gave the eastern champions a lead they never relinquished.

A second period goal by Floyd Curry gave Royals a 3-1 lead and they outscored Stampeders 4-2 in the lively frame to gain the handy winning margin.

MALONE SHONE around the nets for the winners with two goals and two assists. Tod Campeau scored one and helped on two while Jerry Plamondon, Pete Morin, Malone and Curry got the others.

Stampeders were kept off the score sheet from the time Fisher scored at 1:47 of the first period until midway through the final period when Red Hunter tipped in a blueline shot from Art Shoquist. Dunc Grant added Calgary's final goal with about five minutes left on a passing play with Bob Brownridge and Sid Craddock.

THE GAME was notable for light checking, both teams sticking strictly to business as was indicated by the six penalties—four to Montreal and two to Calgary.

Much of the time it was scrambly hockey with Montreal seemingly taking advantage of sudden lapses by the usually-scrappy Calgary defence.

A bright light on the Calgary squad was Tony Desmarais, one of the few players able to skate with the younger Royals. He gave the crowd a thrill on a couple of neat solo efforts in the middle period which just failed to click.

CALGARY—Dertell; Shoquist, Michaluk; Dame; Fisher, Cairns. Subs: Craddock, Wilder, Hunter, Brownridge, Grant, Desmarais, French.

MONTREAL — McNeill; Galbraith, LaForce, Barlow; Curry, Riopelle. Subs—Campeau, Plamondon, Locas, Casavant, Morin, Harvey, Malone.

Officials — Moore, Port Colborne, Ont., Linden, Winnipeg.

FIRST PERIOD: 1—Calgary, Fisher 1:47; 2—Montreal, Harvey 11:15; 3—Montreal, Malone (Harvey) 11:40. Penalties—Craddock, Curry.

SECOND PERIOD: 4—Montreal, Curry (Riopelle) 11:05. Penalty—Casavant.

THIRD PERIOD: 5—Montreal, Plamondon (Campeau, Malone) 4:44; 6—Montreal, Morin (Locas, Malone) 9:25; 7—Calgary, Hunter (Shoquist) 9:55; 8—Montreal, Campeau (Malone) 14:29; 9—Calgary, Grant (Brownridge, Craddock) 15:26; 10—Montreal, Malone (Campeau) 18:50. Penalties—Michaluk, Morin Galbraith.

To Contiinue With Leafs

Apps Athletic Chief

TORONTO, April 28 (CP) —Premier Drew last night announced appointment of Sylvanus Apps, captain of the Stanley Cup-winning Toronto Maple Leafs, as the new Ontario athletic commissioner.

Apps, 32-year-old native of Paris, Ont., has been a star on the forward line of Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League for 10 seasons.

HE GRADUATED from McMaster University of Hamilton and won points for Canada in the pole-vault event at the 1936 Olympic games.

The new Ontario athletic commissioner's post was established by legislation passed at the last session of the Ontario Legislature which at the same time abolished the old Ontario Athletic Commission, dormant for some time.

As commissioner, Apps will have supervisory powers in relation to professional sport in this province and approval of contracts.

HE WILL CARRY out his duties as sports commissioner on a part-time basis and will continue to play for Toronto Leafs if a medical examination shows no reason why he should halt his playing career. Apps some time ago said that the past season would be his last in the NHL, but last night it was learned he had altered this decision.

Dodger Fans Boo Chandler's Speech

BROOKLYN, April 28 (AP)— Thirty thousand fans at Ebbets Field for the finale of the Brooklyn Dodgers-New York Giants series raised a chorus of boos Sunday as tthe transcribed voice of Commissioner A. B. Chandler wes heard in ceremonies for Babe Ruth at the Yankee Stadium.

Chandler's speech was almost drowned out by the whistles and jeers. Fans here haven't forgiven the commissioner for sticking a one-year suspension on Leo Durocher, exiled manager.

Player Pool Split "Private Matter"

MIDDLETON, N. S., April 28 - (CP)—Hanson Dowell, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, said Saturday the splitting up of a $10,000 player pool between members of the Memorial Cup finalists, Moose Jaw Canucks, was a private matter between the club and the Moose Jaw rink.

It had no apparent concern for the CAHA, Dowell said, and he therefore was not considering any comment.

It seems fair that the players who helped make the money should also participate in the profits, Dr. W. G. Hardy, president of the International Ice Hockey Association, told The Canadian Press here Saturday. He was commenting on a dispatch from Moose Jaw, Sask., which reported that the junior Canuck club there had split a $10,000 pool.

DR. HARDY said the whole question hinged on the definition of an amateur.

"The old definition grew up in the days when gentlemen with money participated in what was called amateur sport as contrasted to professional and a stigma was placed on the 'professional. The contention of the CAHA, as I understand it, is first that there is no stigma on professionalism and secondly, that the old definition of amateurism is outdated for Canada wherever you have team sport at which money is taken in at the gate.

"THEREFORE instead of blinking in one way or another, the CAHA has for years publicly recognized the fact. It should be pointed out that the CAHA definition of an amateur is any player not engaged in organized professional hockey.

Nature's own remedy for "spring fever" is a tonic compounded simply of lots of vegetables and fruits, plenty of water and milk, adequate sleep and as much fresh air as one can get, say medical authorities.

Russian Cagers Win First Game

PRAGUE, April 28 (AP)—A well-drilled Russian basketball team opened the European championship matches here Thursday by drubbing a weak Yugoslav outfit 50-11.

The Russians, making their first postwar basketball appearance outside the Soviet Union, lived up to reports they likely will finish first in their division. They rank with Italy, Belgium, Egypt, France and Czechoslovakia among the favorites.

Fourteen countries are competing.

Hogan-Demaret Lose at Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 28 (AP)—Cary Middlecoff of Memphis and Freddie Haas, Jr., of New Orleans defeated the international four-ball champions, Ben Hogan and Jimmy Demaret, in a $3,000 36-hole best ball match concluded here Sunday. Their margin was one up.

Middlecoff and Haas, who had a best ball Saturday of 62, turned in a 65 between them for the second tour over the 72-par, 6,516-yard Chickasaw course. Hogan and Demaret latched a best ball 64 to a similar score Saturday.

To Collect Money For Olympic Team

LONDON, Ont., April 28 (CP)—The executive committee of the Canadian Olympic Association confirmed Thursday the establishment of an Ontario Branch of the Association to collect funds for support of the 1948 Canadian Olympic team. The objective for Ontario on a population basis is $30,000.

While the Dominion's $90,000 objective is not expected to be reached until next November, the committee is enthusiastic over response in Quebec, where over half of that province's $26,000 quota has already been collected.

Outstanding Stars Feature Ice Show

Sparkling with youthful grace and beauty and brilliant with skating talent, "Ice Cycles" will open its all-new 1947 edition for a four-day show at the Edmonton Arena starting Wednesday, April 30.

INTERNATIONALLY famous skating stars are presented in a brilliant ice extravaganza of dazzling production, lavish Hollywood-created costumes, rollicking comedy, thrilling action, speed and gay lilting music.

Moving at an expertly-paced clip, "Ice Cycles of 1947" has been acclaimed by critics as excellent entertainment. The thrilling musical ice revue is produced through the combined efforts of the Shipstad and Johnson "Ice Follies" and the John H. Harris "Ice Capades."

Nothing has been spared to make 1947 edition of "Ice Cycles" a top-flight musical revue on ice. Blade artists of "Ice Capades" and "Ice Follies" are headlined. Fran Claudet, former Canadian champion, Olympic games competitor, and skating director of "Ice Follies" supervised the production of "Ice Cycles of 1947".

AMONG THE skating stars featured in the show are Robin ILee, five times United States figure skating champion, American figure skating representative in the 1936 Olympic Games, and former star of "Ice Capades"; Eleanor Meister, former mid-west champion and Gold medal winner; Henry Lie, twice Norwegian figure skating champion, Buddy Lewis, sensational speed and stunt skater; Jean Arlen, 'teen-age darling of acrobatic skating; Arthur Nelles and Howard Sullivan comedy aces; Leo Loeb, comedy artist from "Ice Capades", and the Alleans, a comedy team of Alan Lovell of "Ice Follies" and Jeane Crystall, star of New York shows.

Other stars include dePauw and Payne, sparkling adagio team; Bud McNulty, breath-taking smooth-skating champion from "Ice Follies", Nadine Thompson and Margaret Field, Hollywood stars.

Two newly-acquired skating teams have been brought to "Ice Cycles of 1947" from England. They are Colin and Joyce Bosley, English dance skating champions, and Anne Rogers and John Moss, accomplished skating team. Both were discovered recently in England by Eddie Shipstad of "Ice Follies" and Walker Brown of "Ice Capades" on a scouting tour of Europe.

Green roses were grown in the United States as early as 1850. They are considered freaks, however, and not a distinct variety.

Junior Captures Vancouver Open

VANCOUVER, April 28 (CP)—Seventeen-year-old Bill Mawhiney, recognized as one of Canada's leading junior golfers, Sunday captured the Vancouver match play open championship with a 6 and 5 victory over Bob Plommer in a 36-hole final round.

Mawhiney was forced to turn back some of the leading west coast links artists, including professional Stan Leonard, to reach the finals.

Hockey Mug Has Growing Pains

TORONTO, April 28 (CP)—Clarence Campbell scratched his head as he looked at the top-heavy Stanley Cup.

"I don't know what we are going to do about it," said the president of the National Hockey League Saturday as he gazed at the emblem of world supremacy won by Toronto Maple Leafs this year. "It's been rebuilt and rebuilt so often and still there's no place for future names. Something will have to be done about it."

ONCE A SMALL bowl like the topmost part of its three-foot length, the cup has had so many extra collars added below the bowl for names of its holders and the players of these teams that it threatens to topple over. Campbell's problem now is to find additional means of providing for more names.

Stories about the Stanley Cup have multiplied since Lord Stanley, then govenor-general of Canada, donated £10 (about $50) for the purchase of the trophy which was to bear his name. It's donation in 1894 made it seven years older than the Davis Cup, symbolizing world supremacy in tennis.

THERE'S A YARN about the season of 1905 when the Ottawa Silver Seven copped the trophy.

The team had a party at an Ottawa hotel and as they wended their way homewards, one had the idea it would be nice to see if he could drop-kick the Stanley Cup into the Rideau canal. He could.

Next day the players couldn't find the cup and suddenly remembered what had happened. Back to the canal they went to fish it out. One of the players took it to his home. There it was forgotten.

Came next season and the Memorial Wanderers won the trophy. They demanded their prize, but no one could find it until someone remembered it had been left at the player's house.

Man Washed Out to Sea Drifts Back in 9 Hours

BEAUFORT, S. C., April 28 —(AP)— Coroner Roger Pinckney reported Sunday that nine hours after Clayton Boardman of Augusta was last seen being washed to sea by a strong ebb tide, the sea swept him ashore again, still alive, at Hilton Head.

BOARDMAN, AN OIL COMPANY executive, was one of four men believed to have been drowned Saturday when their boat was swamped and overturned.

Boardman is under treatment for exposure and shock. The coroner said he had pieced together this story from relatives.

When the small craft capsized, Boardman and the other three were caught by a strong undertow. Boardman estimated he was carried about six miles out into the ocean.

BOARDMAN CLUNG TO A TINY kapok pillow, which served as a buoy, removed his clothes and shoes and waited for the tide to change. For nine hours he clung to his tiny lifesaver and then, about midnight, he felt sand beneath his feet and crawled ashore.

Once on the beach, Boardman burrowed into the sand, still fairly warm, and remained until daylight. He then staggered to a nearby shack and made known his plight. Body of a second victim was washed ashore while two men are still missing.

Business Boom In U.S. Eases Up

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The curve of the business boom is continuing up but there are increasing evidences of tendencies to level off in some sectors, the United States commerce department reported.

Production is up in general and output of finished goods continues toward better balance as a result of increasing raw material supplies.

Farm income declined about five percent in February due to a decline in marketings, but scattered gains in wages and salaries in the production, distribution and service industries kept United States personal income up to the record annual rate of $177,000,000,000.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, (AP) — Sluggishness ruled from the start with the ticker tape frequently idle. Plus marks, in the majority during the fourth hour, were later reduced or cancelled and the minus division was well populated near the close.

McIntyre, up ½, stood out among mixed Canadian issues at mid-day. Hiram Walker added ¼ while Canadian Pacific and Distillers Seagram each eased ¼.

Home Oil Company Outlines Its Plans

CALGARY.—At the annual meeting of Home Oil Company Limited shareholders Saturday Major James R. Lowery president, announced that Home Oil is planning a continuous development program for the balance of the year.

Three new wells will be drilled on the company's property in Turner Valley, in addition to the two drilling at the present time. The company is also investigating the possibilities of drilling on wildcat acreage west of Home Oil's presently producing Turner Valley wells.

Major Lowery also announced that Home Oil has joined with the Calgary and Edmonton Corporation and Anglo Canadian Oil to develop their reservations in the Wabamun lake and McLeod river areas northwest of Leduc as well as in the Camrose field east of Leduc.

On the oil market he said that recent increases in the price of Turner Valley crude to approximately $3 per barrel is still not sufficient. Due to the geographic location and high quality of oil produced in that valley the operators should be receiving more for their production.

All officers of the company were re-elected for the ensuing year with Major Lowery president and M.M. Porter vice-president. Herbert Greenfield submitted his resignation from the board and the vacancy was filled by the election of Mervyn "Red" A. Dutton. The remaining directors were returned.

Eire hopes to end bread rationing this year.

MOTOR CAR OUTPUT

DETROIT.—In production, the auto industry is maintaining a comfortable average, although it appears to be having difficulty getting very far above the 100,000-cars and trucks a week level.

There are many in industry circles who believe that once the problem of wage scales throughout the automobile assembly plants and their suppliers has been settled a sharp upturn in production volume may be expected.

Generally most car makers have been suffering from a shortage of sheet and strip steel although an adequate supply of this metal alone would not remove their production handicaps.

Certainly there never was a time in the car industry's history when inventories of raw materials and parts were as seriously out of balance as they are today.

Our Town

By JACK SCOTT

The Tropics

As I have only recently returned from South America, where I had the shortest career of my career, I am being asked a number of questions about life in the tropics. My answers are, of course, almost interminable, but can be summed up fairly tersely. Life in the tropics is just plain awful.

I got there in the wet season. The difference between the wet season and the dry (or other) season is merely a matter of being roasted alive or broiled alive and drowned. I did not like the idea of flowers always blooming and fruit always ripening. People who know no winter cannot really know summer.

I was like some of the imported trees which get all confused by the weather and run their sap frantically dozens of times a year until they throw up their branches from sheer exhaustion.

The moon depressed me. It is so big it is like living on it. New litters of pigs and goats die from exposure under the rays of the full moon and there are outbreaks of violence in the lunatic asylums, and I believe it.

Concert

The night sounds kept me awake. The insect concert plays nightly from dusk until dawn. Where I was located there was a beetle called "The Six o'Clock Beetle", which sounds the pitch for all the frogs, grasshoppers, locusts, flies, mosquitoes and assorted bugs the moment the sun sinks. Ah, the insects would say, there goes the six o'clock beetle; now we start keeping the visitors awake.

I did not like everything being so big. Flowers bloom everywhere, and all of them are too big to do anything with except maybe wrestle. The lily pads are the size of manhole covers, and just as attractive. After my first week down there, all I wanted in life was a small boutonniere.

In the tropics funerals are usually held on the day of a man's death because decomposition sets in within 24 hours.

That ought to be enough about the tropics.

Would NELLIE HOPE SLIPACHUK please come home, or write her whereabouts. Dad and Mother passed away. Would like to settle estate. John Slipachuk, Box 69, R.R. 1, Winnipeg.

New Routes Detailed

City Council to Get Street Railway Plans

A lengthy report on Edmonton's transportation system will be presented to city council Monday night by city comissioners. It deals with routes already established by the system, and outlines route plans for the immediate future, and also suggests a series of trolley bus stops to be set up in anticipation of the operation of trolley buses through to 124 street on Jasper avenue, and north on the street to 108 and 112 avenues.

THE REPORT deals also with the establishment of a trolley coach loop on 107 avenue-124 street-Jasper avenue-101 street and reverse. Operation on this loop will not start until 1948, and it is recommended in the report that the 107 avenue loop busses proceeding east on Jasper avenue stop at 103 street north of the Credit Foncier building, thence proceed east to 102, and thence south to 100 avenue, and east to 101 street, thence north to the north side of Jasper avenue to stop immediately west of Liggett's Drug store.

Such a loop would reduce traffic problems at 101 street and Jasper avenue, and the city commissioners recommend that the proposed bus stop on the Jasper avenue-124 street trolley bus route be submitted to the utilities committee for consideration.

The report also intimates that street car operation will be continued on the Jasper avenue-124 street route during the winter of 1947-48, and that trolley buses now serving the Highlands district will continue through on this route, thus eliminating the downtown loop now made by these buses.

DEALING WITH the stub line approved for 76 avenue south to 70 avenue, the commissioners report this line has not yet been put into operation although 106 street has been paved to handle bus traffic. Shortage of cement prevented the paving of a route from 109 street and Whyte avenue south to 76 avenue thence west to 118 street.

It is now proposed that until this paving has been completed that the McKernan Lake street car be operated on ½-hour service, and that a ½-hour bus service, staggered by 15 minutes with the street car service, be commenced at once on the 106 street stub.

Also to come before the council is a request from Thomas Ferrier, superintendent of the street railway department, that the department's name be changed to Edmonton Transit System.

Council will also deal with several petitions received against paving of 124 and 116 streets, and will be asked to give authorization to proceed with the paving of 107 avenue as no petitions have been presented against this project. The petitions received on the 116 and 124 street projects will be referred to one of council's standing committees.

ON DAYLIGHT SAVING: Edmontonians joined others in Canada and the United States in going on daylight saving time at midnight Saturday. The transition was made smoothly for the most part, but not without a few ruffles. In the above layout are some scenes attendant on the change. The top picture shows Vera Croucher just after she had put her clock on a hour on Saturday evening. She has the clock to prove she was "early to bed" and therefore ready to rise early. The second picture shows Yvonne Olsen, pictured on Sunday at her dresser. One doesn't know for sure, but a little bird whispered that she was wondering whether that hour lopped off the Saturday night rest had resulted in any recession in her appearance. The little bird said there was no diminution of attraction. The bottom picture, shows Olga Laruska, prominent teen-ager and amateur thespian arriving at work, while Walter Johns playfully appeared to be checking her arrival time. On the whole daylight saving arrived successfully.

Construction Starts Northern Highway

The only actual road construction work now proceeding in the northern part of Alberta is on the road from Flatbush to Smith, Hon. W. A. Fallow said Monday. In other parts of northern Alberta soil is still too wet for good road construction.

However, in southern Alberta all projects are being proceeded with, though machines required for some new construction are being held up to do repair work on main highways under water during the spring run-off.

It is expected that crews will be at work on the Jasper highway west of Edmonton, doing the hard surfacing planned from Carvel Corner to Seba turnoff, within the next ten days, Mr. Fallow said.

Survey crews working on the highway east of the city to the Chipman corner are making excellent progress, the minister said, and as soon as survey work is further ahead, construction crews will be started on construction.

No tenders will be called for this construction since the department of public works will be using its own machinery on the work, according to present plans.

Too Many Mothers Neglect Children

Dear Dorothy Dix: I would have loved to have had a big family, but I was denied this happiness. I have compensated for it by taking young folks into our home, from infants a few months old to grown boys just out of high school. I encourage the friendship of young people and the result is that we are never without some of our kids being around.

Many parents complain that their children are never at home. When this happens, "It is because the parents did not make home life so pleasant that the children wanted to stay there and to bring their friends with them. I know from my own experience the youngsters want to be at home just as much as their parents want them there, but parents are not at home any more, so the children wander.

I still think we have a grand lot of young folks in this old world, and we wouldn't have so much juvenile delinquency if parents would make them feel that they are welcome at home and do something to entertain and amuse them.

AUNTIE BY PROXY

Answer: I am with you a hundred per cent, Auntie, on your theory that children would like to stay at home if their parents made their homes attractive, instead of being the dullest spot they know and from which they instinctively flee.

THERE ARE plenty of women who are never at home when their children come home from school. I have known mothers to actually lock the doors so the children couldn't get into the house, even when it was raining, and they had to go to Tommy's or Sally's for shelter. I have known mothers who never let their children play in the house because they mussed up things; who never let their youngsters eat between meals; and whose watchword was don't.

It is the homes like these that send children to find their amusements and companionship on the streets. Children are naturally home-loving. They like their own things, their own surroundings and parents who are cooperative and who think up interesting things for them to do, and they would rather stay at home if only they were made welcome.

New Soapless VEL Lightens The Family Wash

by Frances Thompson
noted homemaking authority

Let's keep abreast of the times! Soapless VEL is the new, modern cleanser for use on washday. But its use must be understood to be appreciated. Letters from satisfied users are enthusiastic in praise of VEL for the family wash. One such letter says, "I poured in the VEL, put the clothes in the tub to soak as usual, and went about my other work for an hour or so, then came back all ready for a tussle with the washing. To my surprise the water was already filled with dirt, and with very little elbow grease the clothes washed clean as never before".

VEL LIFTS OUT DIRT

VEL is quite different from soap. It literally lifts out the dirt which can be seen, through the darkened water, deposited at the bottom of your wash tub or machine. For this reason, and because VEL is equally good for all kinds of materials, the same water can often be used for the entire wash. A little dry VEL sprinkled on stains or extra-soiled spots will help to remove them. For extra soiled clothes—try soaking overnight with VEL.

NO SUDS NEEDED

Because VEL is light in weight, you use less of it. For instance, if 1 cup of soap will do the job in your washing machine, use about ⅔ cup VEL instead. Experience will soon teach you the amount you need. Put VEL in first then add the water, which need not be hot. The foamy suds will soon subside but no matter! Unlike soap, the washing power of VEL is right there in the solution and it keeps on cleaning clothes long after the suds disappear.

NO SOAP SCUM

VEL forms no soap scum on clothes to make them gray and dingy so much less rinsing is usually sufficient. Nor does it leave any hard-to-remove ring around the tub. VEL is swell when used correctly.

Why Grow Old?

Just the right weight will help you attain the same pleasing charm which has made Actress Angela Greene such a favorite. You can get a quick start on the nine-day reducing diet.

By Josephine Lowman

I am on it, too! It is the worst of all fates when an individual has to take his own advice! I gained ten pounds during December and started my own nine-day diet two days ago. I hope it works as well for me as it does for my readers. Once I taught an eight week reducing class. All of my pupils lost twenty pounds and I gained five!

Every time I offer my nine-day diet I receive so many letters afterwards, telling me of the grand results my readers achieved. These are written out of sheer enthusiasm. They tell me they really never were hungry. I haven't been either—much.

Seriously when you go on a diet which is high in protein, your menus have a staying power even though they are low in calories, and I, myself, have experienced no hunger pains.

The modern reducing diet contains a generous amount of meat, some cottage cheese, skimmed milk or buttermilk, an occasional baked potato, eggs (if poached or boiled), unbuttered whole wheat bread, a great variety of fresh vegetables, fruits instead of dessert, and green salads. These too are filling because of bulk. It is really a simple and pleasant procedure!

I hope that procrastination does not have you by the bulges because you really can lose those extra pounds in such a short time, all of them, if you haven't many, a flying start if you have a great many! Spring is already here and hot weather is nearby.

This week I am giving you some simple, general reducing rules to follow after you have finished your nine-day diet.

If you wish to lose from five to ten pounds in nine-days time send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 39 "Nine-Day Reducing Diet," to Josephine Lowman in care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

Your Baby and Mine

BY Myrtle Meyer Eldred

There is more for the parents to consider in making camp life for their children a valuable experience than just sending them off loaded with the clothes and paraphernalia necessary for their stay.

Mr. F. W. Holbein, out of a long experience, writes a small booklet called, "Your Son Goes to Camp," which enumerates some of the desirable parental behavior. This advice applies to girls, too.

The child should have a thorough physical examination within two or three days of his departure for camp. If there are medicines to give, or the child suffers any personal handicaps, the camp counselor should know of them.

When taking your child to camp make your stay very limited. Do not interfere with any of the camp arrangements such as selection of cabin or companions. These have been made with your child's best interests in mind.

Don't make the goodbyes lengthy and emotional, and if you make visits to camp while the child is there, come on visiting days and come infrequently. One of the advantages of a camp is that it helps the child to be happy away from the home and parents.

Expect that the child will be homesick and may write letters complaining of this and that. The camp director and counselors know how to handle this and it it a fine experience for a child to wear out his home-sickness instead of letting it be victorious over him.

Talk to the boy—or girl—and explain what you expect camp to do for him. Let him know that he will develop resourcefulness, will come to know and love nature and learn to live companionably and co-operatively with groups of other children.

Don't impress the child with your longing for him, instead let him feel that you are pleased with his progress and the privilege he enjoys of going to camp.

If you send treats let them be sufficient to share with others and let the counselor apportion them out. Don't give the child more spending money than he can use wisely.

And most of all, have confidence in the camp and its director. He is alert for signs of illness and there are nurses and doctors available for emergencies. Your own attitude will fix that of the child and assure him that he is in good hands and will be safe and protected.

Our leaflet No. 50, "Wholesome Social Groups," will acquaint the parent with the usual character building organizations who are most apt to have short-term camps for the average child. It may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

Muriel Bean-Norman Gibson Wed in Double-Ring Ceremony

In a double-ring ceremony at the home of her parents, Saturday night Miss Muriel Bremner Bean, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Alexander B Bean of Edmonton became the bride of Norman Walter Gibson, son of Norman Alexander McIntosh of Port Alberni, B.C. Vases of two-toned rose snapdragons formed the setting for the ceremony at which the Rev. J. T. Stephens officiated.

WEARING a rose-beige dressmaker wool suit, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Her hat was an off-face model in navy felt and her accessories were navy. She carried a sheaf of Sweetheart roses, bouvardia and lilies-of-the-valley, and her only ornament was a triple strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. R. W. Marshall, sister of the bride, who chose a gray pin stripe dressmaker suit with hat to tone. Her corsage was of deep roses. R. W. Marshall was best man and Brian Bean, brother of the bride was usher.

After the ceremony a reception to 30 guests was held. To receive the bride's mother wore a gray wool dressmaker suit and a pink straw hat with black plastic crown. Her accessories were pink and black and her corsage was of violets and Sweetheart roses.

SET WITH a hand made lace and linen cloth, the bride's table was centred by a three-tier wedding cake arranged in white tulle caught with pink and white sweet peas and maidenhair fern. Crystal swans holding sweet peas, and white tapers completed the arrangement. H. A. Ferguson proposed the bridal toast.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson will take up residence at 10437 83 avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Dalby of Pibrock were out-of-town guests for the wedding.

Miss Wharton Becomes Bride

Delton Baptist Church, decorated with spring flowers and ferns, was the scene of the wedding Saturday of Miss Alberta Edna Wharton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wharton of Barrhead, and James Smith, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith of Macklin, Sask. The Rev. Heston Flanagan performed the ceremony. Mrs. Daniel Philips played the wedding music.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of heavy white satin fashioned with a fitted bodice having a sweetheart neckline and long full sleeves, tapering to lily points over the hands. Her embroidered net veil, which terminated in a train, fell from a sweetheart headdress accented with small flowers. Her jewelry was a rhinestone necklace with matching earrings. She carried a bouquet of deep pink roses and white carnations.

Sister of the bride, Miss Anna Wharton was bridesmaid and wore a blue taffeta gown, chapel veil held in place with flowers and carried pink carnations. Sharon Tonsi, a flower girl, wore a pink nylon frock with pink flower headdress and carried a bouquet of spring flowers.

Best man was Harold Flanagan and Ernest Hooper was usher.

Mrs. Wharton chose for her daughter's wedding a two-piece navy blue crepe dress with pale blue accessories and a corsage of red roses.

After the ceremony a reception was held when the bride's table was set with white lace and centred with a three-tier wedding cake, flanked with vases of spring flowers. Mr. Flanagan proposed the bridal toast. The couple will reside in Edmonton.

Will Study Depth Of World's Oceans

NEW YORK, (NANA). — A party of 16 Swedish oceanographists and other scientists will probe the world's deepest sea bottoms in a round-the-world voyage starting this summer.

An ocean-going vessel, the "Albatross," is being outfitted in the Lindholm shipyard at Gothenburg with various devices and instruments for exploration of marine depths. One winch at a forward hatch is of particular interest. It will actuate a 12-ton spool of wire approximately 32,810 feet in length, which will serve to bring up specimens from the ocean bottom. (The "Emden depth," of Mindanao island, greatest known in the world, is estimated at 35,000 feet.)

Women in Limavady, Eire, have formed a darts club to play the game heretofore considered to be for men only, and will challenge the pick of the men's clubs in the vicinity

Say Bligh's Tomb Forlorn, Forgotten

LONDON, (Reuters) — Allegations that the tomb of Captain Bligh — protagonist of the Nordhoff and Hall historical novel, "Mutiny on the Bounty" is "forlorn and forgotten" have led to an Australian suggestion that his remains should be disinterred and shipped to Sydney, Australia.

But Rev. Henry Hedley, rector of the Lambeth church in the yard of which Bligh lies buried, says "there would be an outcry" if the body were moved.

The controversy opened when J. M. Tully, New South Wales agent-general in London, wrote to Sydney City Council's Works Committee, suggesting the tomb be moved. The letter said the tomb, damaged by bamb-blast, was in poor condition generally, acid in London smoke was causing its surface to deteriorate and it appeared "forlorn and forgotten."

The letter was referred to Britain's Royal Historical society for advice. Meanwhile Mr. Hedley commented:

"I would have thought that before these people did anything they would have got in touch with this end before putting Sydney Council to the trouble of discussing the matter.

"If Sydney cares to restore the tomb that would be very nice. As for removing the whole tomb and contents to Sydney — there would be an outcry in Lambeth if anybody touched it."
